The Ernest G. Welch School of Art & Design at Georgia State University seeks applicants for a full-time Lecturer position in Textiles to begin August 2017.

We seek an exceptional artist and educator who will join our team of vibrant, creative professionals that includes 30+ full-time faculty in art, design, and art history serving over 1000 art & design majors across nine separate disciplines. Screening of applications will begin February 15, 2017 and will continue until position is filled. (any applications received after the deadline will only be reviewed in the event there are no viable candidates in the first round)

Position Summary
We seek a candidate who is an outstanding artist and an enthusiastic educator, with a strong desire to foster excellence in our students. The candidate must value working with diverse student populations and cultural perspectives. The successful candidate will teach a 3-4 or 4-4 course load, depending on the assignment of studio management responsibilities. Additional summer teaching opportunities may become available for interested candidates.

Necessary Qualifications:
- MFA in Textiles or Fibers by the time of appointment;
- Experience teaching a range of textile courses as well as the ability to teach foundations (2d, 3d)
- Ability to teach basic weaving, knitting, crochet, spinning, and 3d forms
- Ability to teach basic dyeing (natural, disperse, mx), printing (repeat screen)
- Ability to teach digital processes in textiles, in surface design and/or weaving
- Experience with studio/lab management and instruction of safe practices;
- Excellent writing, speaking, and interpersonal skills
- Professional studio practice that demonstrates an understanding of contemporary issues in Textiles and the broader field of art, an emphasis on three dimensional form

Preferred Qualifications: A national exhibition record reflecting a commitment to professional development; evidence of quality teaching at the university level; understanding of textile industry and garment construction

Georgia State University is an EEO/AA employer. Employment is contingent upon background verification.

Application Process:
Please email as a single PDF document containing a letter of application, current vita, artist statement, teaching philosophy, two sample syllabi, names of three professional references (phone numbers and e-mail), 20 labeled images of personal work and 20 labeled images of student work to wsadrecruiting@gsu.edu

For further information about the position, contact Jess Jones, Search Committee Chair jessjones@gsu.edu